The Ascendant (the rising sign)

The signature impulse of the soul's intention.

Personality and ego, the social interface, the lens through which the world sees us, what we demonstrate in our social sphere, our reference for "self".

The Midheaven

Our orientation to take power in the world.

Our "mission" or worldly purpose. Also, what the world seeks from us.

Part of Fortune

Where and how we need to integrate.

Wholeness and grace, the point in the chart that everything else must make sense to.

The North Node

The unfolding, evolutionary balancing of the South Node.

The challenges and struggles associated with realizing this life's ultimate destiny.

The orientation point and beacon that guides us along our soul path.

Synchronicity and meetings.

The South Node

Our karmic overlays and past life default tendencies.

That which we need to "love into consciousness", heal and release. The reservoir of past life information, unfinished business, strengths, aptitudes and inclinations.

Accumulation of past life experience that was judged and therefore became karma. Early life experiences.
