The States (Houses) - key phrase interpretations

1) State of Being (self)

The environment of what is being personified, embodied and acted out in our behavior. Where the ego and personality structure is delineated. Where we develop our appearance, named identities and persona.

2) State of Security (holding)

The environment where our values are asserted to assure survival. Where we ground in matter and discover what is needed on the material plane to be comfortable and productive. Where we interact with money, possessions, assets and resources. Where we develop our self-worth.

3) State of Mind (integration)

The environment where we discover and develop how we think, interpret and communicate experience. Where we ground and integrate our higher self and personal mastery. Where we connect and communicate with siblings and neighbors.

4) Home State (feeling deeply)

The environment of the lifestyle of our private selves, home, family and mother. Where we connect with our roots, establish emotional security and connect with our clan. Where we nurture ourselves and others through the bounty of our homes.

5) Creative State (expressing innocence)

The realm of the child, fun, pleasure and creative talent. Where we express our uniqueness and the root dynamic from deep within. Where we define and develop our talents and gifts. Where we express our sexuality, our need to have fun and learn lessons in giving love.

6) State of Employment (be here now)

The environment where the skills, technology and stresses of work and service are played out. Where we develop cooperation dynamics. Where we attempt perfection and bring clarity and precision to our service to others. Where we experience our work as a way of healing ourselves, address our own health needs and heal others.

7) State of Intimacy (the other)

The environment where we experience our relationship criteria, mating style and our “shadow”. Where we discover a dynamic knowing of self by harmonizing and forming intimate connections with others. Where we encounter our partners, mates, business associates, adversaries, customers and unclaimed parts of ourselves.

8) State of Surrender (letting go)

The environment where we go to transform and experience (ego) death and rebirth. Where we discover our deepest authenticity and sense of personal power. Where our connection with Earthly desires (sex, money, power, immortality) are brought forward. Where we share resources and release everything that is unessential to our soul intention and path.

9) Intuitive State (spiritual integration)

The environment where we experience revelations and perspectives that form our beliefs and philosophies. Where we pursue and discover our truth, connect with our higher self and spiritually integrate. Where we develop ourselves through “higher” education and foreign travel. Where we teach and broadcast what we know.

10) Professional State (taking power)

The environment where we establish credibility, integrity and mastery. Where we identify and develop our mission and manifest true purpose. Where we develop a career, reputation and a public image. Where we prove a standard of competency in our vocation. Where we experience “father” energy, authority and our position in society.

11) Community State (giving)

The environment of humanitarian visions, social life and group dynamics. Where we develop our connection and involvement with the health of the community. Where we play a unique role in culture, give our gifts and learn lessons in receiving love.

12) Subconscious State (bliss, dissolution)

The realm that is hidden, unseen or repressed. Where our need for retreat and withdrawal is addressed. Where we develop the (4th dimensional) languages of our spirituality and subconscious. Where we attune our consciousness to our personal mysticism. Where we are absorbed by the Infinite. The environment of addiction and dependency and the entry point to healing these things.
